

Eric Themm

Principal | MDS Consulting

Eric Themm is a principal with 23 years of health care experience. He serves as a client service advisor for several multi-hospital systems, dozens of hospitals across the country, and other health care organizations including ambulatory service providers, government health agencies, and physician organizations.

Mr. Themm has broad experience in the areas of physician-hospital alignment, medical staff development, strategic planning, service line development, ambulatory services planning, board education and facilitation, facility planning, physician compensation, troubled organization assistance, and hospital mergers and acquisitions. He currently oversees operations at MDS's office in Orange County, California.

Mr. Themm has held previous senior level positions with The Camden Group and Ernst and Young. He received his bachelor's degree from Claremont McKenna College in Claremont, California.